Prophets Of Rage - "No Justice" - MP3 May 12, 2011 Prophets Of Rage - "No Justice" Prophets Of Rage, the San Francisco-based hip hop group made up of Rage Against the Machine's Tom Morello, Tim Commerford of Rage Against the Machine, Tim Yohannan of Bad Brains and Brad Wilk of Rage Against the Machine, have released a new song called "No Justice." The song was recorded last week at Westlake Audio's Studio 60 in Los Angeles. It will be included on the band's new album, Revolution Radio: Music for the People. The CD will be released on June 6th. This is the first single from the album and it's a good one. The CD has been remastered and is packaged in a new limited edition digipak with four tracks from the Revolution Radio album. The two bonus tracks are songs Rage Against the Machine fans will want to hear. "No Justice" is a fast paced and catchy song. The chorus in particular seems to have a Rage Against the Machine feel to it. The lyrics are not about the Occupy Wall Street Movement, but about a "jackbooted, fascist regime" that is trying to arrest the country's youth "for standing up for their rights." The single was recorded during a session that was previously planned for "82157476at
